From the Charleston Courier.
Messrs. Editors.—As the Publisher at Baltimore, of the History and Topography of the United States, permit me, through your columns, to disclaim all voluntary agency in the publication of the offensive portion of the 16th Number of said Work. That Number was issued at Boston, and I was surprised and shocked when the criminal character of a portion of its contents was brought to my attention, and immediately took measures for its suppression. No Agent of mine shall receive that Number for distribution; and I pledge myself, that in my edition of the Work, not one word shall be admitted which could offend the most sensitive friend of the South and Southern Institutions. As a citizen of a Southern slave-holding State, I will have no agency in circulating calumnies against the South, and I certainly never would knowingly have offered for the patronage of Southern men, a Work in which they were insulted and abused. I return thanks to the South for the liberal patronage I have received, and again promise that the succeeding Numbers of this otherwise useful and interesting Publication, shall be free from the stain by which the 16th Number is disgraced.

ROBERT REID.
 Papers which have mentioned the objections to the Work, on account of the contents of No. 16, will confer a favor by copying the above. March 2

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.
STRIKES.—Our city is becoming a scene of great disorder, riot, and we fear bloodshed. Several thousands of laborers, stevedores, and shoremen, are parading the city, compelling every man at work either on buildings, or alongside of the wharves, to strike and break off. At the foot of Pine Street, yesterday thousands of these persons were assembled, to compel the hands on board the various lines of packets to break off. Justice Bloodgood, with a posse of officers, went there to seize on the rioters; a general fight ensued, several persons were knocked down and one of the police officers was badly beaten. The laborers demand a dollar and a half a day, and shoremen a dollar and three quarters, and although the merchants generally consented to pay these rates, yet the Society required that the principal owners of packets should sign a paper that they would continue these prices hereafter.

DAI. ADR.
Peace of the City.—Yesterday the regiment of Col. Smith paraded, armed and equipped, and rendezvoused at the City Hall, for the purpose of suppressing all tumultuous and riotous assemblages of the stevedores shoremen or laborers, in the event of any renewal of their disorders or disturbances of the preceding day. The rain that fell incessantly during the day, or the apprehensions of danger from the attack of the military operated to prevent a recurrence of the disgraceful proceedings of Tuesday, and before night the troops were dismissed. A sufficient number of watchmen and civil officers were on the alert at night to protect the peace of the city.

N. Y. Cour. & Eng.
GREENVILLE, FEB. 27.—Casualties.—We understand that Mr. Henry Springfield was frozen to death on the night of the 18th inst. about 12 miles above this place. The weather was very cold, the ground covered with snow, and we regret to add, the deceased was somewhat intoxicated. He has left a wife and several children, to mourn his sudden and unexpected departure.

We have also been informed that Mr. Solomon Doubitt a man upwards of 60 years of age residing near the Table Rock in Pickens District, perished with cold, on the night of the 18th inst. in the vicinity of his own dwelling. We are not in possession of the particulars attending the death of Mr. D., but learn that ardent spirits were connected with the unfortunate affair.

On the evening of the 19th inst. an affray took place at a "Grocery" six or eight miles above this place, when James Brown stabbed John Southern, and wounded him so severely that it is considered very doubtful whether he recovers. Brown is in Jail to await his trial. This is another instance in which Alcohol has wielded its maddening influences over some of our fellow mortals.

Improved Fire-Arms.—We saw yesterday in the hands of the inventor, Mr. Samuel Colt, of Hartford, Connecticut, a new description of fire-arms, superior to any other which we have ever seen, the ne plus ultra, we should think of those implements of destruction. They were a rifle and a pistol, constructed on the repeating principle, by means of a revolving chambered cylinder filled with a number of charges, and capable of being removed and replaced with a fresh supply, with the greatest ease and quickness. We cannot undertake a minute description of the invention, nor do the purposes of passing notice require it. We will, therefore, only say that for simplicity, celerity and efficiency, we doubt if the contrivance has an equal in the whole magazine of arms.

The Naval and Military Force of Egypt.—The Pacha's navy is said to be put upon a complete war footing. His ammunition and stores are daily increasing, and his crews are also rapidly improving. He has six ships of 100 guns; two of 85; two of 80; five of 60; two of 52; four of 54; two of 50; four of 20; three of 16; one of 14; and one of 10 guns. The Admiral or Murimraia, has under his command 440 officers of all ranks, and upwards of 600 sailors, besides auxiliaries. All the fortresses of this country are being put into the most formidable state of defence; and from the recruits enlisted in the country, the army, by the spring, will amount to 30,000 effective men, without including several garrisons.

It appears from the Quebec Mercury, that some fellow who wished to interrupt the proceedings of the Assembly of Lower Canada, sprinkled the tincture of Arsenic in different parts of the legislative Hall for that purpose.

Copartner Wanted.

THE business of conducting this paper has become so burthensome, that I cannot do it justice and do myself justice in other respects. I wish therefore, to take a partner into the Editorial department of the Watchmen. I should regard a high degree of qualification as indispensable: for whether the present Editor possesses that or not, I am able to show incontestible proof that the establishment is in a high degree profitable and every way improving.

I would prefer a gentleman of the bar, who would be willing to form a copartnership in the law practice also. Letters (post paid) will be promptly answered, detailing the affairs of the office, (more than ought to be done in an advertisement) and giving my views of all the advantages of the proposed arrangement: a personal conference, however, would be necessary before closing such a contract.

The attention of Mothers, of all Christian denominations, is respectfully requested to this Circular.

To increase confidence in the Mother's Magazine, and to express their conviction of the great importance of the cause which it advocates, the undersigned have given the following testimonial to the public.

CIRCULAR.

MATERNAL INFLUENCE is acknowledged, by Legislatures, Philosophers and Divines, to be one of the principal causes which give character to nations, as well as to individuals.

When this truth is so clearly seen, both in history and experience, it becomes every Patriot, and every Christian, to manifest his approbation of such measures as will enlighten and purify this controlling influence.

In accordance with this sentiment, the undersigned take great pleasure in recommending to every Mother, in our beloved country, the monthly periodical entitled THE MOTHER'S MAGAZINE. This publication, edited by Mrs. A. G. Whittelsey, was commenced two years since, and has not only obtained an extensive circulation at home, but is reprinted by two different presses in England. It is furnished to subscribers, at the low price of One Dollar a year, and is published by Rev. S. Whittelsey, 146 Nassau-street New York.

Devon Stock.

THE editor of the Farmer and Gardener can at all times supply orders for Devon Cattle this breed is so distinguished for their easy keep and docility, the richness of the milk of the cows, and for the activity and sprightliness of the oxen, that they would be admirably suited to the purposes of southern agriculturists.

The happy adaptation of the Devonshire Oxen, for the purposes of the farm, will be understood, when it is stated that 4 oxen have been known to plough 2 acres of ground in a day, and a team of them to trot at the rate of six miles an hour in an empty wagon.

Any person wishing to procure them can be supplied by addressing a letter post paid to the editor of the Farmer and Gardener.
